CHICAGO, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1902.

PRICE 5 CENTS

MONEY MUSS IN FRONT.

Although the card offered to the large crowd that was present at Worth yesterday was of only average quality and no stake race was up for solution, the racing was replete with close and exciting finishes, and a better day's sport has not been seen hereabouts in some time. The track had dried out fast and was in pretty fair shape, as was evidenced by the time made by Money Muss in the fourth race, the five furlongs being negotiated in 1:01 3/4.

The best field of horses went to the post in the fourth race, a dash of five furlongs for all ages. Sidney C. Love was made the choice of the talent, but the best he could do was to run fourth, the winner turning up in Money Muss, which led from start to finish, winning handily by a neck from Duellist, which beat Irene Lindsey a head for second place. Duellist ran an excellent race, standing a long stretch drive with much gameness. Irene Lindsey was under a hard drive all through the last eighth, but faltered slightly in the closing strides. Sidney C. Love began slowly, but made up ground fast when entering the last quarter and finished with speed and courage. Allyar ran a good race, maintaining an even gait throughout. Kenilworth was taken wide when turning for home, losing much ground. The race should do him much good and he should be a hard horse to beat from now on.

The day's opener, a dash of five and one-half furlongs for maiden two-year-olds, resulted in a close and exciting finish between My Surprise and Vincides, the former winning by a neck with Jim King an indifferent third. Vincides displayed much speed and appeared an easy winner in the last furlong, but Buchanan rallied My Surprise in the closing strides and she responded in fine style. Vincides would have won with a good hustling ride at the end. Jim King ran a fair race, maintaining an even gait throughout. Rankin, backed heavily by a few "wise ones," ran a dull race and was never a serious contender.

The second race, a dash of five furlongs for all ages, also resulted in a close and stirring finish between Little Jack Horner and Delmarch. The former showed his usual turn of speed and stood off Delmarch's determined effort at the end with gameness, winning by a nose with Andes third two and a half lengths back. Delmarch faltered for a moment in the closing strides, but Coburn rallied him quickly and he responded well and would have won in another stride. Andes made up ground in the last quarter and finished going fast. Montanic, backed for a "good thing," displayed scant speed and was beaten off through the entire journey.

Water Edge, the favorite in the third race, a dash of one mile and seventy yards for three-year-olds and upward, proved to be the best, but not until after a stirring argument with Pretorius in the last sixteenth. The latter showed considerable improvement, leading by a fair margin until well straightened for home, where Water Edge steadily closed down on him and, in a spirited finish, won by a half length. Pretorius beat Count 'Em Out two and a half lengths for second place. The latter ran a good race and finished strongly. Serpent ceased to be a serious contender after seven furlongs had been run.

Prince of Endurance, running back to his spring form, proved to be the best in the fifth race, a six furlongs scramble for two-year-olds. He led from start to finish winning driven out by a head from Arvensis, which beat Gold Bride two and a half lengths for second place. Arvensis closed up ground fast in the last eighth and came so fast at the end that Treanor had to hustle out the winner. Gold Bride showed improvement and bears watching from now on. Albemarle, up well for five furlongs, tired rapidly when the last sixteenth struggle came up. Queen Beth was practically left at the post.

The last race, a dash of one and a sixteenth miles for four-year-olds and upward, was an easy thing for Leo Newell. He ran Lissome into submission in the first six furlongs and then came away easily, winning by two lengths from Ida V., which beat Do Madge three for second place. Ida V. made an ineffectual effort to close upon the winner in the final furlong. Do Madge was knocked off her stride at the start, which practically threw her out of the race. She made up much ground in the last half and finished so strongly that Stille was unable to hold her and she continued on an extra mile before she could be checked up. Siesta ran well for seven furlongs.

The track, in case of no rain, will be in good condition today. Betting was spirited and fairly heavy throughout the afternoon.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Assistant Secretary Dillon, of Latonia, wired Secretary Jasper yesterday, requesting that he notify horsemen intending to race at the Latonia fall meeting that they must make their application for stable room at once, as it will be impossible to take care of the horsemen later on account of the number who are desirous of sending horses to be raced there.

J. Davis, the well-known bookmaker, arrived yesterday from New York where he met with big success. He will join the layers now operating at Worth at the next draw in.

Owners Arthur, Lind and Burke were each fined $10 yesterday by the judges for bringing their horses late to the paddock.

Jockey J. C. Kearns was yesterday suspended by the starter for the remainder of the meeting.

Secretary Jasper issued a notice to horsemen not to harbor apprentice J. A. Graham, as the boy is under contract to C. K. Burdeau and left without the latter's consent.

Money Muss and Leo Newell, both from the stable of F. T. Wood and well backed by the owner, landed purses. Durnell & Herz also captured two purses with My Surprise and Prince of Endurance. Jockey T. Dean scored the riding honors by piloting Little Jack Horner and Water Edge to victory.

Messrs. Durnell & Herz did not concede their entry, My Surprise, a chance in the first race and allowed her to go to the post unbacked. In the second race they bet $3,000 on their entry, Montanic, which ran unplaced. To cap the climax, Prince of Endurance their other starter beat out Arvensis, on which Durnell & Herz had wagered $1,000.

OUTLOOK AT LOS ANGELES.

"Hidalgo" (Capt. Tom Merry) writes entertainingly of the coming meeting at Los Angeles in the Herald of that city as follows:

"The outlook for a brilliant race meeting at Agricultural Park was never so good as in this year. In addition to an unusually large number of entries to the harness races, there are already over eighty gallopers on the ground, with seventy more due to arrive in the next two days. Among those already on the ground are Eonic and The Fretter, winners of the rich Burns Handicap at Oakland; Tower of Candles, a big winner at Coney Island last year and very successful since her return to this coast; Flush of Gold, winner of the Los Angeles Derby of 1900 and several other important stake races; Princess Titania, winner of a dozen races in the colors of Caesar Young; Wolhurst, a winner of ten races this year; The Fog, the biggest winner in Montana during the season recently closed; Morinel, a stake winner in each of the past three seasons; Idoyo, a good winner in Montana; Huachuca, the best of all the Santa Anita horses in the east this season; and about two dozen more that belong to the class generally referred to as 'useful horses.'

"From the east we may expect a big lot of cracks, including Rolling Boer, McChesney, Caliban, Father Wentker, Schwalbe, Geheimnis, Tayon and Otis, the latter being the winner of the St. Louis Derby. It is almost impossible to find stable room for all of them, but there will be after all. The harness horses will be stabled at the upper end, nearest to the gate, while the gallopers will be at the lower end of the yard. Marcos Foster's horses got in on Friday, minus that good colt, Sid C., which broke down at exercise on September 21 at home. Those of E. J. Baldwin, trained by his nephew, will arrive here next week. Among them are some two-year-olds that have not yet started, and there are some great stories retailed about their 'speed' by the touts. One of these colts called Batador, is said to be a singularly handsome colt and is entered in three stakes, so they must think pretty well of him. Dr. Rowell, the only man who ever won the Burns Handicap twice (with Satsuma and Imperious), is on his way with twelve head, including that good colt, Bon Mot, by Fitz James—Queen's Taste, by Rotherhill. The doctor is a singular man and has a fashion of buying up cast-offs from other stables and winning big races with them. At least that is what he did with Satsuma and Imperious in the days that have flown, purchasing the former from C. S. Brownell and the latter from A. B. Spreckels. You never can tell what horses will do after Dr. Rowell gets hold of them, for he can beat the world in patching up old cripples and winning big races with them. This year he has won considerable money at the Chicago tracks and is liable to spring a surprise on the knowing ones before the season is over. Dr. Rowell's daughter is the wife of the once famous American rider, Lester Reiff, who had the mount on William C. Whitney's Volodyovski when he won last year's Derby in England, and ran second to Doricles in the St. Leger."

BRIGHTON BEACH STAKES.

This week the Brighton Beach Racing Association will issue entry blanks for a number of valuable stakes to be run in 1903 and 1904. The events will be the Brighton Junior Stakes of $10,000, the Neptune Stakes of $5,000 and the Venus Stakes of $5,000, all for two-year-olds, to be run in 1903, and the Brighton Derby of $10,000, at a mile and a half; the Iroquois Stakes of $5,000, at a mile and a furlong, and the Oaks of $5,000, at a mile and a sixteenth, all for three-year-olds, to be run in 1904. The value of these stakes, as given, is guaranteed and a liberal amount of money will be added to each event.

The Derby distance has been increased from a mile and a quarter to a mile and a half, and with $5,000 in added money should be one of the most valuable, as well as one of the most interesting, three-year-old events of the eastern turf. There has been a generous increase in the value of the Venus Stakes and the Brighton Oaks, each for fillies, exclusively. This year the Venus was worth $3,000 and the Oaks $3,500. The value of each of these events now is $5,000, a substantial increase.

President Engeman not only has increased the value of his stakes, but he is going ahead with the work of improving the course, which, with its new clubhouse and paddock all ready is well-nigh perfect. Work has been commenced on a chute at the head of the homestretch which, when completed, will give a straight run of a quarter of a mile to the judges' stand.

The value of this improvement will be appreciated by none so much as by horsemen who may have starters in the Brighton Handicap, or in other races over the handicap distance of a mile and a quarter. Heretofore the starting point for races at a mile and a quarter has been on the turn and in the rush for a good position there has been much crowding before the field was straightened out for the run through the stretch. When the new chute or extension to the homestretch is opened there will be no excuse for crowding, as there will be a straight run to the stand.

Track Superintendent William Clare has a large gang of men at work on the new chute and expects to have it completed before the end of the month.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

An inkling of the magnitude of American operations on the English turf next year was afforded by Mr. Foxhall Keane on Saturday. The son of the vice-chairman of The Jockey Club says: "The Americans are likely to sweep the English turf next year, for American stables in England were never stronger and the home racing material never so weak." Of the plans and policy of the stable of Messrs. James R. and F. P. Keene in England next season, Mr. Keene says: "We shall have upward of thirty high class horses constantly in training, ready to race and win from the opening to the close of the English turf season. As yet we have not definitely decided as to which of our string now racing here we shall send, but we expect to ship about twelve yearlings from Castleton across the water."

"I have great hopes of our string showing a great improvement in Matt Allen's hands. I like his style of training, and I think he is the man exactly suited to our purpose."

"I have studied the horses on the other side for several years past, and I think that our horses here are fully capable of holding their own with them."

"I expect that our two-year-olds at Castleton next season will be the best crop we have ever turned out. We will ship the most promising ones to England, and consequently we are of the opinion that next year we will enjoy the most successful year in England since we started racing our horses there. I think American horses will sweep the boards in England next season, comparatively speaking, for the visiting owners will run only in the more important fixtures."

Thomas Welsh, for several years identified with both the Fleischmann and Farrell stables, will train next season exclusively for Julius Fleischmann, of Cincinnati. The Fleischmann stable has been a strong factor on both eastern and western courses for many years, and the "white, red and blue cross, sashes, white cap" have shown in front in many a classic event. The sale of the Farrell stable, which is scheduled for some time during the Morris Park meeting, leaves trainer Welsh free to devote his entire interests to the Fleischmann stable next season. With Mayor Fleischmann's well-known liking for the sport, and the probability that he will not have his time taken up so thoroughly next year with municipal matters in Cincinnati, there is every likelihood that his stable next season will be greatly strengthened and again become one of the important factors of the eastern turf. This season the two-year-olds of the string proved disappointing in the main, the best of the lot probably being Hurstbourne. It is to be hoped that Mr. Fleischmann will again come to the front with a string of good performers, and with trainer Welsh in charge the prospect of a successful season in 1903 is decidedly good.

There is a movement on foot to organize a western racing circuit for the purpose of holding racing during the summer at Colorado Springs, Denver, Butte and Anaconda. It is understood that Charles Clark, son of the multi-millionaire senator from Montana, is to be one of the leading spirits in the project, which has every prospect of going through. Running races are to be given exclusively and syndicate book betting will not be permitted. The idea is to begin about the first of June and race for three months.

George C. Bennett has twenty-nine yearlings now quartered at Churchill Downs. John W. Schorr has twenty-seven yearlings there; Bob Tucker has eight horses, which he will take to Latonia; Capt. S. S. Brown's yearlings will be in at an early date. Brown Dick is looking for thirty head of horses to arrive almost any day; John Fay has eight; John Morris ten; W. F. Schulte twenty-four, and there are about fifteen others belonging to various other owners.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The running meeting which will be conducted in conjunction with the Atlanta, Ga., fair opened yesterday. Some very good horses will be campaigned there, as the meeting has been approved by the western and eastern jockey clubs. Several Cincinnatians are interested in the meeting. T.

O'Brien, a well known man in turf circles, will have charge of the betting ring.

The following telegram, which was received by Secretary Welden, of the Atlanta meeting, assures horsemen that the project is not meeting with the objection of the governing turf bodies:

"Chicago, October 6, 1902.

"Frank Welden, Secretary, Atlanta, Ga.:

"Heretofore the Western Jockey Club has not interfered with meetings of six days held by regularly recognized fair associations, but will not sanction extended race meetings. If your case, owing to conditions, will permit race meeting of twelve racing days.

"GEORGE H. KUHLE, Secretary."

Wyndham Walden is the Nestor of living American trainers. For over forty years he has been handling race horses, and his connection with racing marks a veritable history of the American turf for that period. He goes to Henry T. Oxnard, the beet refiner of California, and will take charge of his Albemarle stable of horses, comprising Lux Casta, Price, Wealth, Invincible and others.

Henry Oxnard will strengthen his stable next year, and Trainer Walden will have some good material to work on. The connection should be mutually advantageous to both parties, and all wish them well. The older trainers that we have left with us can teach some of the younger a thing—and that is patience, especially with two-year-olds.

Rome Respass, of Covington, Ky., was taken suddenly ill on the track at Morris Park Tuesday and was removed to his temporary home near the track in Westchester. Respass has some of the most promising western horses at the course, including Colonnade, Dick Welles and others.

E. Corrigan has bought of O. H. Chenault, of Spendthrift Stud, for $3,500, the following three yearling thoroughbred colts: Bay colt, by Heremence—Biddie, by Wanderer; bay colt, by St. George—Nan, by The Ill Used; bay colt, by Heremence—Tiddledewinks, by Jils Johnson.

Prince of Endurance, 5-1 won, Plunge for the Limit was our advice to our army of followers on this good thing. Wednesday's three-horse wire was Vincetides, Pretorius, Prince of Endurance. Water Edge, Money Muss, Leo Newell were given for place bets.

Thursday at Worth First Race 5 to 10 to 1 Extra Special Good Thing

This one has worked fast enough to beat anybody's horse—handicap division not barred, will have a good rider up and we are confident that this good thing will win.

We will name two other horses in our wire and on our Form Letter. Both should be as good as 4 to 1 and should win galloping. WE PICK WINNERS because we have the money necessary to maintain a competent force of track experts. We spend money to make money. We'd be fools not to spend at least $1.00 per week for good information, wouldn't we? THINK IT OVER.

Also sold at news stands southeast and northwest corners Clark and Madison sts.; cigar stand in rotunda, 185 Dearborn st.; cigar store, 267 Dearborn st. and Sherman, Wellington, Grand Pacific and Great Northern Hotels.

SPECIAL NOTICE

to Those Who Play the Races.

We have sent to over 800 clients $0 per cent. of winners on the western and eastern races this fall and expect to do still better, as we know of several LONG SHOTS THAT WILL WIN both in the west and east. A trial will convince the most skeptical of our ability to send winners. Our statement sent free. If we don't bring you out big winner on week's trial will send you the following week's wire free. We place commissions on at the tracks for any amount from $25 up, mailing you daily (a.m.) play each day, sending winnings each week. Our charges for this are 15 percent. of net winnings—NO OTHER CHARGE. Terms for information wired daily all over the United States:

THE REED DISPENSAL SALE.

The sale of Charles Reed's Fairview Stud at Sheephead Bay Monday netted $71,650 for 105 head, including the noted stallions Knight of the Thistle and St. Blaise. It was in 1891 that Mr. Reed paid $100,000 for St. Blaise at the Belmont sale and the next day refused $125,000 for the imported sire. Monday when St. Blaise was brought into the ring and auctioneer Easton asked for bids Frank T. Clarke started the ball with $1,000. Dr. Williams raised it to $2,500 and Green B. Morris bid $3,500. George Wheelock, the well-known bookmaker, got into the game with $4,000, and as Morris raised him $300 Wheelock went to $5,000, stopping at that figure. Morris then bid $5,500 and St. Blaise went to J. B. Haggin, who was represented in the bidding by Morris.

Knight of the Thistle, a coming sire, was the most in demand. Col. Jack Chinn made the first bid of $5,000. Lucien Appleby, who brought the stallion to this country, then bid $10,000. Milton Young of McGrathiana Stud raised the offer $1,000. Wheelock jumped the price to $15,000, whereupon R. H. McCarter Potter, owner of the Pequest Stud in Sussex county, N. J., bid $16,000. Wheelock went to $17,000 and retired and Potter bid $18,000 and got the stallion. Two former Brooklyn Handicap winners, Diabolo and Exile, were among the stallions offered. The former went out of the ring without a bid, while the latter brought only $100. Milton Young was a large purchaser of brood mares. August Belmont and an agent of the Rancocas Stud, now owned by Mrs. Lillian Barnes Allen, were also among the purchasers. Among those present at the sale were August Belmont, J. E. Widener, W. F. Schulte, Gus Strauss, Jack Chinn, C. F. McMeekin, James Galway, Jack McDonald, J. E. Madden, Garrett Wilson, H. B. Durham, L. O. Appleby, John Morris, R. H. McCarter Potter, F. R. Hitchcock, T. Hitchcock, Jr., Col. J. E. Pepper, C. H. Smith, William Lakeland, H. P. Headley, R. W. Walden, Sanford Lyne, Milton Young, E. R. Cowdin, G. H. Whitney, John Campbell, George Wheelock, S. S. Brown, O. H. Chenault, C. Littlefield, G. B. Morris, J. H. Carr, John Hynes and others.

Winner—B. h. by Golden Garter—Miss Modrine (trained by L. Johnson).
Went to post at 2:46. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Elastic was favored by the improved going, showed fine speed, came on fast in the stretch and won as his rider pleased. One More was off well, ran a good race and finished stoutly. Hengist finished fast. Lady Idris showed some early speed, but tired. Eleanor Howard ran a good race from where she got off. Tenny Belle ran a bad race and can do better when in good form. Miss Guido tired after running well to the stretch.

Scratched—35193 Sue Johnson, 109.

Went to post at 3:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Jack Young was well ridden, ran to his best form and finished strongly. Pourquoi Pas broke in front, but was quickly taken back to last place and taken the long way, then closed up in the stretch and was possibly best. She ran all her winning races in front. Ed Layson ran in improved form. Ma'mselle ran a bad race, but is best in muddy going.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 6 minutes. Start poor. Won handily; second the same. Frank Bell was off tangled up, but soon assumed a good position, saved all possible ground, finished fast and won with something left. Miss Golightly went to the post lame and sore, but ran a splendid race and hung on gamely. Delagoe, off badly, was given a very weak ride, but closed up fast in the last quarter and finished strongly. Kindred ran a good race for five furlongs, then tired. He is becoming good and will do soon. The others were not contenders.

Winner—B. m. by Kahama—Brigade (trained by J. Givens).
Went to post at 4:42. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Kunja came fast in the best going, caught Joe Lesser tiring and won in the final stride. Joe Lesser ran to his best form. Miss Eon ran a fine race from where she got off. Guide Rock was thrice cut off and interfered with. Tony Lepping was in about every pocket on the racetrack, but ran a good race. Chantierelle quit badly after showing early speed. The same applies to Kittie G.

Winner—Ch. c. by Appomattox—Perusia (trained by E. Trotter).
Went to post at 5:10. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Red Apple improved suddenly and ran away from his field in marked contrast to his previous two races. Glenwood ran a good race and finished well. Satin Coat ran a fine race under more weight than he likes. Taby Tosa did not seem to like the going, was cut off sharply no less than three times and was very badly ridden. Qudenarde was short and tired. Wall ran his race. Salinda ran a bad race.

Winner—Ch. f, by Tom Paxton—Helen Bancroft (trained by T. E. Mannix).
Went to post at 2:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Philma Paxton was much the best, showed surprising speed on the flat, but jumped poorly, and should improve, as her recent bad fall when going through the field probably affected her action over the hurdles. McGrathiana Prince runs his best races over this course and ran a game race in improving form. Lavator outjumped the others and led for a mile and a half under a pull, but was probably short, as he tired at the end. Ferocious was prominent for the greater part of the journey and can do better. The others ran badly.

Time, 1:11.35.
Winner—B. c, by Laureate—La Tosca (trained by W. Hayward Jr.).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Chuctanunda waited on the pacemaker to dip, where he went into the lead and was an apparently easy winner, but was short, unexpectedly driving right at the end to beat Brunswick. The latter finished very fast and ran a great race. Ondurdis finished strongly and sustained her speed in improved fashion. Par Excellence, incapably handled, was coming on fast at the end. Parisienne fails to stay unless her speed is reserved for a final sprint. Hunteress and Articulate were out of place at the weights after recent long races. Ezera showed superior early speed.
Scratched—(35337) Schoharie, 107; 35408 Star of the West, 100.
Overweights—Ondurdis, 5 pounds.
Chuctanunda, show, out. Brunswick, show, 8 to 5. Ondurdis, show, 2 to 1. Parisienne, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. f, by Fonso—Intermission (trained by H. Harris).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Interval forced the pace and held on gamely, won going away and was best. Tioga, favored by the down hill course, closed up with a rush in the stretch. Pearl Diver, outrun early, came fast at the end. Squid went well. Captivator tired badly in the last sixteenth. Nevermore is strictly a mud runner. Ipse Dixit was away badly.
Scratched—35481 Forward, 100; 34390 Ornature, 95; 35180 Colonist, 95.

Winner—B. c, by Ingoldsby—My Chick (trained by T. P. Hayes).
Went to post at 3:30. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Incubator, lucky and skillfully ridden, made good with a brilliant stretch run and is a stayer with a high class turn of speed. Boutonniere forced the pace and held on surprisingly well and was easily second best. Forward tired right at the end, but was a strong contender when a sixteenth out. Athelroy ran well and is improving. Mackey Dwyer, practically left, closed a big gap.
Scratched—35455 First Chip, 113; 35482 Joe Cobb, 110; 34116 Gimcrack, 110; 35505 Love Note, 102.

Winner—Ch. c, by Ben Strome—Last Ban (trained by B. Wood).
Went to post at 3:55. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Knight of Harlem from a lucky start led throughout, is a good looker and will improve. Titian, nearly left, closed a tremendous gap and was easily best, but had scant chance with an incapable jockey and requires a vigorous ride. Patronymic finished strongly. Judge Du Relle failed to stay. Pretoria had a rough journey but his race was poor. The Cuckoo and Whisp quit after following the winners for six furlongs. White Crest's race was a very bad one.
Knight of Harlem, show, 3 to 1. Titian, show, 2 to 1. Patronymic, show, 6 to 5. Judge Du Relle, show, 7 to 10. White Crest, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. c, by Juvenal—Sandola (trained by J. Frayling).
Went to post at 4:25. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Satire, nearly left, closed an immense gap, found a lucky opening next to the rail at the end and won drawing away. Mr. Brown worked a rough passage gamely and drew out an apparent winner when a sixteenth out, but Satire wore him down in the closing strides. Ben Battle held on well under a skillful ride. Prince Richard quit right at the end. Black Dick was closing up in the last furlong and is improving. Past favors soft going. Meistersinger, probably short, quit in the stretch.
Scratched—35503 Ben Howard, 108; (34302) Rossfame, 95.

Winner—Ch. f, by St. Saviour—Distaff (trained by E. Moore).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Arachne showed the most speed and the going and weight suited her to a nicety. She shook off Lady Kent at the half mile ground and from thereon had things all her own way. Lady Kent was easily the best of the others, but could not concede the weight to Arachne. Nat Goodwin tired from chasing the leader; and was quitting at the finish. The others were always outrun. Oconee got in motion slowly and could not improve her position. Lady Kent, entered for $1,000, was claimed by W L Hazlip for $1,225.
Corrected weights—Nat Goodwin, 102.

Winner—Ch. c, by Golden Garter—Jo Viva (trained by M. J. Daly).
Went to post at 3:28. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Oro Viva carried Bonnie Burr very wide when coming into the homestretch and seriously interfered with the latter's chances. The pair fought it out and Oro Viva lasted just long enough to win. With better racing luck Bonnie Burr would have been first. He was catching the winner at every stride at the end. All-hallowmas began slowly, then closed a big gap, saved ground when turning for home and finished strongly. Artist and Sly Boots tired and were quitting in the run home. Dart pulled Artist up when he saw he was beaten.
Overweights—Navigator, 2 pounds.
